

Dear American International School of Monrovia Community Members,

As you have likely heard in December, 2017, AISM Director Jeff Trudeau accepted his optional contract extension, and he will continue to lead our academic community through July, 2020. Jeff will see us through the end of the 2019-2020 School Year, and is working with the Board of trustees to create a seamless succession plan as we recruit our school's future director.

We're working with International Schools Services, a well-known and experienced recruitment agency, whose consultants have the expertise to guide us through the monumental task of finding someone to fill Mr. Trudeau's shoes. Our next step will be to advertise the School Director position in order to find just the right person for our community.

Under Mr. Trudeau's leadership, AISM has become not just a good school, but a great school. We sincerely appreciate all that he has done to strengthen and improve the curriculum in partnering with the community. The fact that our school is the first and only school in Liberia in the past 29 years to be accredited by a U.S. agency shows that he and AISM's dedicated faculty and staff have surpassed their ambitious goals.

We are grateful to have 18 months to identify his successor, who, the Board is very confident, will provide the same energy, the same focus, and the same outstanding degree of success to our students, faculty, staff, and families at the American International School of Monrovia.

The Board will keep you informed as the recruitment process develops. In this time of transition, one thing that will not change is that our children will continue to receive an excellent education at the American International School of Monrovia.

Best regards,
Jay

Ms. Jay M. Sorensen
